

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 8, 1834.

Opposition "Triumphs."—To those who recollect the federal "triumphs" and "victories" which preceded the Presidential elections of '28 and '31, the present rejoicings of the same party will appear in their proper light; and all who will take the slight trouble to review the results of those elections, will place a just estimate upon the sagacity which invents, and the integrity which circulates, the present false reports of public feeling and sentiment. Preceding the last election, we heard of nothing but "changes" and "re-actions," numerous enough, in all conscience—had they existed any where save in the wishes, and upon the paper of the opposition—to have thrice defeated the re-election of President JACKSON. And yet, how triumphantly was he sustained by the people he so faithfully served; and how signally did that very people rebuke the lying accounts of their fickleness, which were expressly manufactured to bring discredit upon their judgment, and defeat to the man of their choice.

The manufacturing of this description of public opinion, was then, as it is now, a business—and a certain editor of high standing at the seat of Government was at one time as well known by the nickname of "re-action Gates," as by the real name his god father gave him at his christening. That gentleman's paper, which claims unusual credit for truth and candor, was filled with glowing accounts of renunciations of, and "re-actions" against Jacksonism, which, if they ever existed, certainly "advanced backwards" at a very rapid rate, just before the time of the election.

The truth is, that in proportion to the increase of the democratic party, the desperation of its opponents also increases; and for the actual strength they need, they are trying hard to substitute a "rag currency," which is just about as much like the thing it is intended to represent, as Mr Biddle's bills are like the true "constitutional currency" of the country, Gold and Silver. We assert it as a fact, capable of the clearest demonstration, that the democratic party,—with which is identified the present administration, and its measures,—has never been so strong in this country, as at the present moment; and the clamor of its opponents, and their reckless falsehoods, is good proof of the fact. If that party could have been destroyed by misrepresentation and calumny, it would have been long since extinct—but a fabric that rests upon the virtue and intelligence of the people, is not so easily crumbled.

It is an old saying that "a barking dog never bites"—the course of the federal party is an illustration in point. With its members generally, it is bark, bark, growl, growl, up to the day of election, when they soon ascertain that they are bound up Salt River, and as soon they drop their tails between their legs, and sink harmlessly away, like a whipped spaniel, until another annual revolution brings them again forward, to "act their battles o'er again." In the mean time the disgrace of defeat adds to their malignity, without contributing to their success; and they bark louder, and growl sharper, at every subsequent attempt.

The democrats have neither the time nor disposition to do thus. They keep their "HUGE PAWS" engaged in laudable industry till the day of election, when they walk silently to the ballot box, and deposit those votes which ever have, and ever will prove the main pillars of our political security. They may possibly laugh at the disappointments of the aristocracy; but our word for it they will never think of following in their footsteps, or least of all, envying them the profit of those victories, which are so GLORIOUS ON PAPER, but alas! so evanescent, off! The aristocracy are welcome to do nine-tenths of the bragging, while the democracy, as at present, does quite two-thirds of the voting—and if our enemies find cause for rejoicings, barbecues and bonfires in the result of a contest thus carried on, we shall be the very last to complain.

The Great Contest takes place in Maine to-day. In verity, there is "no telling" who is Governor until after election," but we are strong in hope, and confident, that the result of this election will show a Democratic triumph. The Bank parasites have compassed sea and land to revolutionize the State, and have poured out their falsehoods and their money, unsparingly, to effect that end. But we have quite too much confidence in the integrity and patriotism of the Democratic party in Maine, to believe for a moment that its members will be deceived by the one, or purchased by the other.

Our friends may be prepared to hear of a Federal "victory," to-morrow, BEFORE THE ACTUAL RETURNS ARE RECEIVED—but when they come, the joy of the Bank minions will be turned to grief, and their smiles to tears.

Trouble.—The editor of the U. S. Telegraph is out upon Mr E. Everett, for his toast given at the Salem Wiggery, which was this—

"Our distinguished guest, (Mr. Webster)—The highest honors of the Constitution to its ablest defender."

Gen. Green says "it is a distinct nomination in terms which cannot be misunderstood," but that the South and West never will support him, and that it is his opinion, "that if a candidate, he cannot obtain a single vote out of New England, in the electoral college, or in the House, in case the election is carried to that body."—The Telegraph concludes its comments upon this subject as follows:—

"We fear there is a fundamental obliquity about the leaders of the old federal party—that they have seized upon the present state of the public mind as affording them their last and only chance of supreme power, and that they are resolved to push it in extremis, even if the alternative be that which they profess so much to deprecate—the election of Mr Van Buren. All that we have to say to them, under such circumstances, is, that we will not become a party to such a conflict. We may lose our candidate, but we will preserve our integrity. If we go with them and are defeated, we are defeated forever; if we maintain our position, our ultimate triumph is certain, whether they be beaten or victorious."

Dudley Selden, Representative in Congress from New York city, has resigned his seat—much to the gratification of the citizens he has so basely misrepresented.

The Gloucester Democrat is one of the ablest papers in New England—we have laid several valuable articles, aside for re-publication.

The Death of Lafayette, was commemorated in this city on Saturday, under the direction of the Young Men's Committee, in a manner highly creditable to them and their constituents. Agreeably to the published order of the procession, the several bodies of citizens assembled at the different places designated for them in and about the State House, at 10 o'clock A. M. The procession was formed under the direction of Col. E. G. Prescott, assisted by a large number of Deputy Marshals. The escort duty was performed by the Boston Regiment of Light Infantry, under the command of Col. A. G. Smith, and consisted of the Mechanic Riflemen, Capt. Snelling—New England Guards, Capt. R. S. Fay—Washington L. Infantry, Capt. Joseph L. Ross—City Guards, Lt. Charles A. Macomber—Winslow Blues, Capt. R. Robins—Boston Light Infantry, Capt. Ezra Weston, Jr.—Boston Independent Fusileers, Lt. Eben N. Stratton—and Rifle Rangers, Capt. Charles R. Lowell. To which were added the Cambridge Light Infantry, under the command of Capt Edwards—the Malden Light Infantry, Capt. Stimpson—the Hingham Guards, Capt. Cazenau—and the Hingham Rifle Company, Capt. Corbett.

The procession—which was nearly a mile in length, and occupied 19 minutes in passing a given point—began to move a little before 12 o'clock, and passed through Beacon and Tremont streets to Boylston street, down Boylston and up Washington streets, to the Rev. Mr Mott's Church opposite Castle street, where they counter-marched and returned down Washington street, through State st. and Merchant's Row to Faneuil Hall. During its progress, minute guns were fired by a Company of Artillery on the Common—the bells tolled—the flags of the shipping were half-mast—the stores on the route closed, and business entirely suspended.—Upon its arrival at Faneuil Hall, the usual exercises upon such occasions took place. Mr Everett's Eulogy, which occupied one hour and three quarters in its delivery, was worthy of his high fame as an orator and a scholar, and was listened to with great attention. All the services at the Hall were in good taste, and gave universal satisfaction.

The arrangements and decorations at the Hall were worthy of commendation. From the centre of the ceiling to the cornices, were hung festoons of black cloth, in which the galleries and columns were also clothed. In front of the galleries, on either side, were the tri-color and the stripes and stars, entwined; and, in contrast with the black ground, produced a very magnificent effect. An organ was placed upon a platform at the west end of the Hall, bearing an urn, and the French and American flags, entwined with black; in front of it was a bust of Lafayette, on a pedestal, and on either side the musical choir were arranged. On the centre of the eastern gallery was a large spread eagle, under which the name of LAFAYETTE was inscribed in silver letters upon the black cloth. A Requiem, furnished by Greenville Mellen, and set to music by Professor Mason, and an Ode by Isaac McLellan, Jr. composed by professor Webb, were performed upon the occasion, Mr Mason presiding at the organ, and Mr Webb officiating as leader of the choir.

We noticed in the procession, General Macomb and suite, of the U. S. Army, and several other distinguished officers of the Army and Navy.

After the services at Faneuil Hall were concluded, the Committee of Arrangements, by invitation of the Chairman, partook of a collation at Concert Hall, at which many good sentiments were uttered.

The weather was favorable, and every thing contributed to the beauty and attraction of the pageant—it passed without an accident to mar its effect—and will long be remembered by all, who witnessed or participated in its imposing ceremonies, with pride and satisfaction.

We shall publish an account of the great Democratic meeting in Chelsea, in a few days. It was a movement of the old genuine Jeffersonian Democracy, and the character of the proceedings is worthy of the venerable patriarch who was most conspicuous in them.

The Grand Jury for Middlesex County will meet at Concord this day. We understand that there are fifteen or sixteen cases to be examined in relation to the Charlestown riot, and that the whole number of witnesses to be examined, is nearly one hundred.

The N. Y. Board of Health reported on Friday 21 deaths by cholera. On Saturday, 20.

GENERAL ORDER.

Treasury Department, }
July 21, 1834. }

From and after the date hereof, the uniform dress of the officers and seamen composing the Revenue Cutter establishment, shall conform to the following description, viz:

Captain's Dress.—Dark gray cloth coat, rolling collar, double breasted, and lined with black silk.—Nine buttons on each lapel, and one on each side of the collar; four buttons on each cuff, and four on each pocket flap; one on each hip, two on the middle of the skirt fold, and one on the extremity of the skirt. A strip of black braid one inch wide, to be worn around the sleeve, immediately above the cuff. Two plain gold epaulettes—plain cocked hat—small sword, with black glazed belt and gilt mountings, black cravat or stock, buff vest and high breasted, with nine buttons on the breast, and four on each pocket flap. Dark gray or white pantaloons, gray to have a strip of braid on the outer seam, extending from the hip to the bottom, short boots, to be worn under the pantaloons, or shoes, with stockings to correspond with the pantaloons, as the officer may elect.

Undress.—Dark gray cloth frock coat, single breasted—standing collar, braided, nine buttons on the breast.

First Lieutenants.—Dress and undress same as captain, with the exception of one button less on each cuff, and one less on each pocket flap, and also with the omission of the epaulettes on the left shoulder.

Second Lieutenants.—Same as first Lieutenants, with the exception that the epaulettes is to be worn on the left shoulder.

Third Lieutenants.—Same as second Lieutenants, with the omission of the braid on coat.

The button established for the service will be impressed with the shield of the Treasury arms, surmounted by a foul anchor, according to the pattern furnished from the manufactory of L. Kendrick.

Petty Officers.—Blue cloth jacket, five revenue buttons on each lapel, one on each side of the collar, and one on each cuff. White frocks, with collar and breast facings of blue, a worked star on each side of the collar, and two on each side of the breast, white or blue trousers, according to the season, and blue belt.

Seamen.—Same as petty officers, omitting the buttons on the collar and cuffs.

(Signed) LEVI WOODBURY,
Secretary of the Treasury

VERMONT ELECTION.

Vermont is coming!—The following intelligence from Vermont, shows that the Green Mountain Boys scorn the gilded chains of the Bank, and are about to cast them to the ground. The Federalists are particularly requested to claim a "VICTORY," in the election of Gen. FLETCHER.

New Hampshire Patriot, Extra, }
Sept. 6th, 1834. }

The election for Members of Congress and for State Officers took place in Vermont last Tuesday. As far as information has been received, the accounts are most cheering. They prove that the opposition party in that State, combining the old Federal and Anti-Masonic parties—is fast crumbling away. Washington County for the first time, has given a Democratic majority of nearly Five Hundred for the Jackson candidate for Congress: the Democrats of Montpelier gave the largest vote that was ever given in that town—353 for the Administration, to 257 for the Anti-Masonic and Federal ticket. In 39 towns the votes were for General Fletcher, the Jackson candidate, 2875—for Upham, Federal and Anti, 2130—for Jones, 972.

A letter from Lyndon, dated Sept. 4, says—"I give you the result of the election for Members of Congress in 32 towns in this district. Fletcher 2659—Upham 2040—Scattering 618—leaving a majority of one over the whole: there now remains but little if any doubt of Mr Fletcher's election."

The great and unparalleled increase of the democratic party in Vermont at this election proves that the HONEST YEOMANRY OF NEW ENGLAND, WILL REPUDE THE BANK AND ITS ATTORNEYS IN CONGRESS.

It will be remembered that hitherto every member of Congress and every department of the State government in Vermont, has been opposed to Gen. Jackson.

Extract of a Letter, dated Wilmington, Windham County, Sept. 2, 1834.

"Our Representatives have just been elected by 32 majority over Whigism and Antimasonry united. Votes for Governor—Bradley 125, Palmer 85, Seymour 18. For Congress—Robinson, democratic, 115—Petibone, anti, 64—Hall, federal, 41, Scattering, 10.

"Petibone avowed himself hostile to the Bank in the Convention that nominated him; and, I understand if elected, he would pursue the course of Mr Pearce, of Rhode Island. You will perceive we have given 148 majority against Hall, the federal candidate and present representative. I think we shall defeat Hall, and ultimately elect Petibone.

"Whitingham Election. Governor—Bradley, democratic, 116—Palmer, anti, 102. Congress—Robinson 96—Hall 62—Petibone 18."

The votes in Burlington were—Governor, Bradley 223—Seymour, 219—Palmer 13. For Congress—Van Ness 229—Allan 230. A letter from that place says, there will be no choice of member of Congress and probably no election of Governor by the people.

Burlington is the seat of the Branch Bank, and it was represented that the Jackson party was annihilated in that town.

A letter from Bennington, returning several towns, says—"The result is very encouraging to the Democracy of the county. It shows a gain, notwithstanding the flood of panic speeches which has been poured in upon us. Should the opposition continue the same course during another session of Congress, the State will be regenerated."

A letter from Windsor says—"Whigism is overboard in this State. It is doubtful whether one of the present Members of Congress is re-elected. So much for the U. S. Bank! The Jackson party has gained much in this State."

Prison Riot.—At Reading, Pa., on Saturday night last, the prisoners confined in the jail made an ineffectual attempt to break out between 10 and 11 o'clock. By some means they forced one of the doors in the chamber, and thus all, five in number, got together, armed with knives and various missiles, bidding defiance, and threatening death to any who approached. One of the prisoners received a slight wound from a pistol shot, another received a knock down, and the remainder finally were obliged to submit. The rioting continued throughout the night, to the great disturbance of the neighborhood, and on Sunday morning, they were all heavily ironed and chained to the floor. They are all imprisoned for trifling offences, and the terms for which most of them were sentenced would have soon expired, had they not been so silly as to prolong them by this last outrage.—N. Y. Star.

Mysterious.—On Monday last, about 11 o'clock, A. M., we understand that a man was seen to throw himself into the Monongahela river, at the foot of Wood street. Although taken out in a few minutes, his life was found to be wholly extinct; and a coroner's inquest being held, and a verdict found, he was decently interred. On yesterday morning, the absence of a boarder, named Mills, from the Pittsburg Hotel, having excited some surprise, his room was opened, and a letter found on his table directed to Mr McKibbin, declaring his intention of committing suicide, and advising against any search for him, as useless. Circumstances concur in inducing the belief, that the individual missing from the Pittsburg Hotel, and the man picked up in the river, are the same. He was a printer by profession, apparently about thirty years of age, and of a cultivated mind, but unfortunately tinged with an unhappy scepticism, which embittered his days. In his letter to Mr McKibbin, he refers to his parents residing somewhere in New York, and to an uncle in Cincinnati.—Pittsburg Adv. Aug. 28.

Another Anecdote.—A gentleman called yesterday at the Branch Bank of the United States, in this city, with a counterfeit five dollar Branch Bank note, for which he claimed another, on the ground of having received it at the counter of the Branch. The clerk assured him that if he would make oath to the fact of his having received it of him, he would give him another in place of it, which he declined doing, because he had passed the note to another individual from whom he received the note which he then held, which he believed to be the same, although he could not, under the circumstances, swear to the fact. The consequence was, that he lost the five dollars; and this is the money which the Bank men tell us is better than the new gold coins, because the public may be deceived with imitations of the latter.—Balt. Repub.

On Monday evening, about 10 o'clock, the watchman on Pine street wharf heard a noise in the dock, as if a man had fallen into the water. He procured a light and proceeded to search the dock, but nothing appeared. Yesterday morning, at low water, the body of a man was discovered sticking in the mud. He was taken to the wharf, and the coroner procured. It proved to be the body of Jeremiah Cornell, about 30 years of age, who had been employed on board an oyster vessel.—Nothing was known of his connexions. He had probably mistaken his route, and in the dark walked into the dock.—U. S. Philad. Gaz.

An inquest was held on Saturday evening, by Prince Snow, Esq. on the body of William Tainter, a laborer on the Boston and Providence Railroad. It appeared that the deceased stripped off his clothes and dived into the water, the depth of which was only eighteen inches, and broke his neck. Medical aid was immediately called but life was extinct. We understand he has left a wife and six children.—Galaxy.

Performing Quarantine by Deputy.—When the steamboat arrives at Charleston, S. C., from New York, it is met at the quarantine ground by a packet from the city, which takes on board the New York passengers, and remains at the quarantine ground the time prescribed for quarantine, and the latter returns to N. York.

LATER FROM EUROPE.

The ship St Andrew, Taubman, from Liverpool, arrived last night, bringing Liverpool dates to the 31st, and 30th of July from London.—N. Y. Star.

The Irish Coercion Bill passed the House of Lords on the 29th, after an ineffectual attempt of the Duke of Wellington to restore the objectionable clauses.

Melbourne, in reply to the Marquis of Londonderry, stated in the House of Lords on the 30th, that no certain intelligence of the landing of Carlos in Spain had been received.

The motion of Mr O'Connell in the House, to postpone the Irish Tithe Bill, was lost by 154 to 14.

The headquarters of Carlos have been changed from Sanitas de Oro. Rodin's plan of campaign will be to surround Carlos' troops—force them to cross the Elbro—cut off all retreat, and then attack them—leaving no chance for their escape.

The riots at Madrid had not been renewed—numbers had been arrested. The number of monks who fell a victim to the mob's fury amounted to from fifty to sixty.

The devastation and havoc committed by the Cholera at Madrid was immense, high and low, alike fell a victim to it. The alarm is very great—no accounts of the cases or deaths are given to the people—they are left in entire ignorance as to its increase or decrease, 500 cases a day, and 260 deaths within the same time were known. To the latest dates, by information from letters, the mortality had fallen to 100.

Gen. Van Ness, our minister, had been slightly attacked at the same time with his wife, whose death we have noticed before.

The authorities of Madrid have all been changed, in consequence of the late excesses. The Queen Regent was to open the cortes in person.

The Parisians were entirely engaged in the fetes in honor of the three days of 1830.

The French fleet at Toulon, ordered for sea, will remain at that port, ready to act on an emergency nearer home.

It is said some of the French journals anticipate, that should Rodin sustain a defeat, the French army will immediately enter Spain.

Greece was in an unsettled state. The Mainotes were in arms, and in two or three instances had been successful against the united Bavarian and Greek troops.

Colocotroni, 64 years of age, sentenced to 20 years imprisonment, was to be removed to the Galleys at Poros.

The Inquisition in Spain has been suppressed by a royal decree.

Coleridge, the poet and philosopher, lately died in England.

English and French papers, one day later, have been subsequently received at New York, but they contain no additional interest.

Messrs Topf received by the brig Herald, which arrived here yesterday, a file of Cadiz papers to the 2d of August. They do not look, to us, as if they contained much news—but we cannot be positive on that point. To make a long matter short—we don't understand Spanish.

From Carthage.—We learn from Capt. Chapman, of the brig Athenian, 20 days from Carthage, that all was quiet when he left,—no news. The Report through some of the West India papers that Santa Martha had been sunk by an earthquake, must have had reference to the earthquake which occurred there on the 22nd March.—Jour. Com.

We have papers from Jamaica to the 15th ult. No serious disturbances had taken place from the operation of the Emancipation Law, which went into effect on the 1st. The negroes on a few plantations at St. Ann's refused to work, for a time, but afterwards came to terms, and order was restored.—Ibid.

From Jamaica.—By our paper to August 5th, we learn that the act of apprenticeship went into effect Aug. 1, without the least commotion. It was passed off as a holiday, and the negroes seemed to enjoy themselves much.—N. Y. Star.

We learn from Provincetown, that all the fishermen that sailed from thence, for the Grand Bank, have returned, with one exception. This is, we are informed, unusual, that they should arrive thus early. But their safe return is not all; they have, without exception, brought in great fairs of fish. Those which went to the Labrador coast, have done very small indeed; several have returned with small fares, and all the others have been heard from, having experienced the same ill luck.—Barnstable Patriot.

Compliment.—The emperor of Russia has, through the medium of Baron de Krudener, Minister Plenipotentiary at Washington, presented Joshua Shaw, Esq., artist, of Philadelphia, with five hundred dollars, for an improved percussion cannon lock, invented by Mr Shaw.

In making further search in the house of the Baldwins, at Rahway, N. J., their plates and tools were discovered nicely done up and secreted in the bed, together with letters from different counterfeiters, throwing light on their transactions.

Fine Infant.—A sweet youth of eighteen, lately appeared at Doyleston, Pa., six feet seven and a half inches in height, and proportionally stout. He was good humored, and said he had a brother much larger than himself.

Very Mysterious.—Among the shows and sights with which the country is at present deluged, there is one at Wheeling, Va., that would appear to take the lead in point of interest. We judge from its title—A Grand Incomprehensible Illusion.

Jacob Skinner, charged with the murder of the Postmaster at Port Gibson, Mississippi, has been apprehended at Detroit, where he had fled for safety.

REVIEW OF THE BOSTON MARKET.

FOR THE WEEK ENDING SATURDAY, SEPT. 7.

ASHES.—There have been limited sales pearls at $102 per ton, and pots at $62.

CANDLES.—Large lots mould have been shipped out of the market, and some sales for consumption, at quotations.

COTTON.—Holders are more firm—some hold on for higher prices. Sales Alabama, a 16 a 16 1/2 c per lb, and New Orleans a 15 a 16—six months.

COFFEE.—There has been less business done in this article the past week—and sales have been rather limited a 10 1/2 a 11 c per lb, 6 mos cr, for St Domingo—11 a 11 1/2 for Rio, and 12 a 13 c for Porto Rico.

FLOUR.—Genesee is selling at higher rates than last week, considerable sales at 5.50 a 6.25 per bbl. There have been some sales Southern for export, at our former prices. The demand for consumption is limited.

FISH.—Codfish are in less demand, and prices have declined some. Mackerel come in rather slowly, and sales at 3.75 for No. 1, 3.75 for No. 2, and 3.25 for No. 3.

GRAIN.—The arrivals have not been large, and prices are about the same as last week. Sales for 70 a 71 c for flat.

HEMP.—There have been extensive operations in this article—two-thirds of all in market has changed hands.

IRON.—The sales have been large, and some kinds have been taken at higher rates. Sales old sables at 90 a 92.00 per ton—new do, at $97.00, and Swedes at $80 a $2.00.

MOLASSES.—Nearly all the distilling qualities in market, consisting of about 1500 hhds, were taken up the close of last week, mostly by one house, at 23 1/2 a 24 c per gal.

SALES.—The market is overstocked, and the article is quite dull of sale—sales Liverpool Salt, a 2.12 1/2 per hhd, and 60 days cr.

SPICES.—Sales Cloves a 12c per lb, cash, and Pepper a 63c per lb.

SUGAR.—This article is in less demand, but prices are supported—sales Havana browns at 7 1/2 a 8 1/2—whites at 9 a 10 c—St. Croix at 8 1/2 a 9 c per lb.

WOOL.—The stock of fleece has been increased and the article is in better demand. Sales fleece and pulled to a considerable extent, at quota or 1/2.

THE PARK HOUSE.
The subscriber would inform his friends and the public, that he has relinquished his interest in the Lion Tavern, and has opened a new Hotel, situated near the bottom of the Common and Mall, on the corner of Tremont and Boylston streets, which he has named the PARK HOUSE. The said establishment has just been fitted up and thoroughly repaired and is in every way well suited for a Public House. The situation of the house is surpassed by none in the city. Its central situation will well accommodate the man of business, and at the same time he will find it retired and airy. The furniture is new and elegant. The subscriber pledges himself that his board shall be well supplied with all the delicacies of the season and his table richly loaded. His wines shall always be the best that can be found in the market. Transient or permanent boarders will find good accommodations here as anywhere else in the city. Engine and Military companies will always find the best accommodations and at the shortest notice. The members of the General Court are reminded that the above House is near their "place of business," and that every endeavor will be made to make them at home, whilst from home, on public business. The subscriber is a large and convenient stable connected with the above establishment.
